Jill, Mike, and their cousins are at the seaside. Everybody is on the beach or in the sea.

Mike is sitting on a rock looking through his binoculars. He can see a ship, a lighthouse, and some seagulls. There's a boat and a water-skier. It's Auntie Sarah! She's very good. Uncle Paul is windsurfing with Ben. They aren't very good. Jill and Mum are swimming. Muddy wants to swim too but he doesn't like the waves.

Tom is making a big sandcastle for baby Lucy. Lucy is playing with a bucket and spade. She loves the sand. Tom is putting shells and seaweed on the sandcastle. It looks good.

Auntie Helen is sunbathing. She's wearing a blue swimsuit and sunglasses. Uncle Tim is sitting under a beach umbrella. He doesn't like the sun.

Becky is running and shouting. 'There's something in the cave', she shouts. 'It's something scary!'

Everybody looks at the cave at the bottom of the cliff. Someone is coming out. He's wearing swimming trunks, flippers, a snorkel, and goggles. It's Dad! He's going snorkelling.

Mike and Jill are going to France. They are playing 'The Travel Game'. Mike takes a card and Jill takes a card. Mike's card says 'coach'. He looks for a coach. Jill's card says 'bicycle'.

'There's a bicycle', says Jill. Jill scores five points and takes another card. Jill's next card says 'lorry'. They stop at a filling station to get some petrol.

They see a van, a motorbike, and lots of cars - but no coaches and no lorries. The first player to score fifty points wins the game. Can you see who wins?

They play on the ferry. Jill looks for a hydrofoil and Mike looks for a hovercraft. Then Jill looks for a yacht and Mike looks for a liner.

Can you see who wins on the ferry?

43 at the station

Mike, Jill, Mum, and Granny are at the station. Granny is going to London to see her sister.

Mum is standing in a queue at the ticket office. She's waiting to buy Granny's ticket. Mike is carrying Granny's suitcase and Jill is carrying her bag.

There's a train in the station now. There are lots of passengers on the train. All the coaches are full. A ticket collector is taking tickets. Here comes Mike's friend, William, with his rucksack.

Granny is looking at the timetable. 'I think my train leaves at ten o'clock', she says.

The guard blows his whistle and the engine starts.

Excuse me, is that the London train?

No. Go over the bridge to platform two. It's coming through the tunnel now. Hurry!

Your train leaves in five minutes, Mum.

Auntie Sarah, Uncle Paul, and baby Lucy are going to Jamaica to see Sarah's grandmother.

Mum, Mike, and Jill take them to the airport. Mum parks the car in the car park and everybody goes to the check-in. The man at the check-in looks at Sarah's, Paul's, and Lucy's tickets, takes their luggage, and gives them their boarding cards. Sarah and Paul look at their boarding cards to see their seat numbers on the plane.

Mum, Mike, and Jill say 'Goodbye!' to Sarah, Paul, and Lucy at passport control. Jill kisses Lucy and waves to her. They show their passports and then go through security. A security officer checks their bags with an X-ray machine. They go into the departure lounge to wait for their flight. Sarah buys some perfume for her grandmother at the duty-free shop.

Mike and Jill are watching the planes. They can see the runway and the control tower. A helicopter is landing and a plane is taking off. It's Uncle Paul and Auntie Sarah's plane.

In ten hours the pilot lands the plane in Jamaica. They go through passport control, collect their luggage, then go through customs. Sarah's grandmother is waiting for them.

Jill, Mike, and Mum are going to a magic castle.

They sit in a little car. The car goes into the castle. There's a king and a queen, and two knights. The king and the queen are wearing crowns. The knights are wearing armour. One knight has a sword and a shield. The other knight has a big axe. He looks frightening.

Now there's a wizard and a witch. The witch has a black cat, a broomstick, and a cauldron. The wizard has a silver cloak and a magic wand.

The car goes into a giant's room. Everything is big here. There's a big table, a big chair, and a big foot. It's the giant's foot.

The car goes through a door. Now they're in fairyland. There's nothing frightening here. There are flowers and fairies everywhere.

The car goes into a cave. There's a dinosaur, a dragon, and lots of different monsters.

The car goes onto a pirate ship. The pirates have got a treasure chest. A door opens and the car goes into the moat. Splash! There's water everywhere.
